From 3PL to print on demand. Here is why.

● The problem we kept seeing

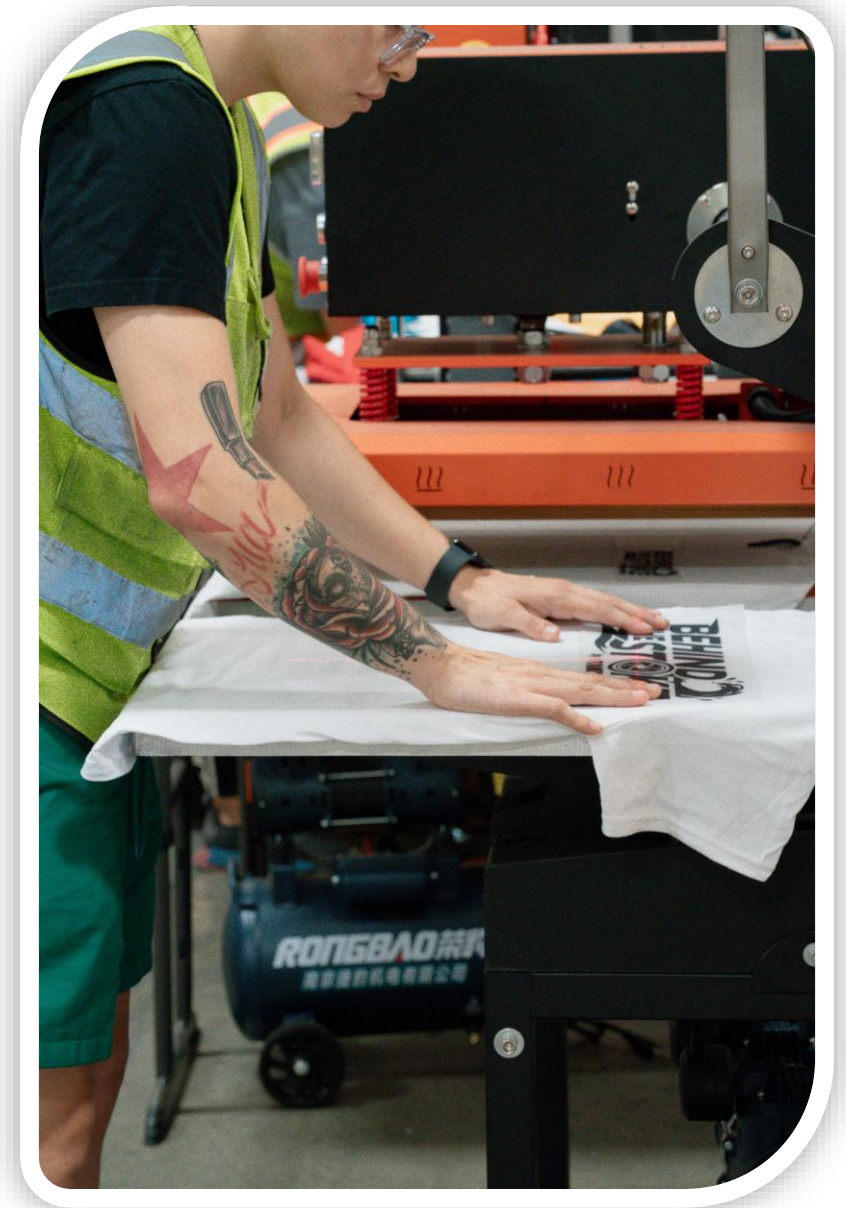

Sellers loved print on demand but hated the trade-offs. Slow overseas production. No visibility. Orders bouncing between third party print partners with no single team accountable for quality.

● We built it the right way

We added in-house DTG and DTF printing to the same warehouses, the same OMS and the same WMS that already power our 3PL fulfillment by ShipSage Inc.. One team. One quality standard. One dashboard from design to doorstep.

● Why PrintSage exists

Print on demand needed its own home. PrintSage is our dedicated POD brand, built on ShipSage infrastructure. Same warehouses. Same speed. A brand made for print.

Four ways to print on demand with PrintSage.

Whether you sell online, shop for yourself, create content, or run a bigger brand, there is a path built for you.

1

 A screenshot of the Shopify App Store interface. At the top, there's a search bar with the text 'Search apps, guides, and more' and buttons for 'Browse apps', 'Log in', and 'Start for free'. The main content area displays the 'PrintSage' app by 'ShipSage'. On the left, there's a sidebar with the PrintSage logo, pricing information ('Free to install. Additional charges may apply.'), a rating of '0.0 (0 Reviews)', and the developer 'ShipSage'. A large 'Install' button is at the bottom of this sidebar. To the right of the sidebar is a large video thumbnail titled 'How ShipSage Print on Demand Works' with a play button overlay. Below the video, there's a description: 'Print-on-demand t-shirts with US fulfillment. Design, publish and ship — no inventory required.' followed by a paragraph explaining the service. At the bottom, there's a list of features:

- Upload artwork and preview every color on the t-shirt before publishing.
- Publish to your store with one click — variants, media, and inventory all set.
- Paid orders auto-route to our US warehouse for printing, packing, and shipping.
- Live inventory sync from our US warehouse keeps your variants from overselling.
- Tracking numbers push to your store automatically once we print the label.
